

Mothers' Guild To Fete Teachers

An exhibition of the arts and crafts work of the students of the church school and the confraternity classes will be featured at the Silver Tea, sponsored by the St. Lawrence Women's Guild in honor of the teaching staff of St. Lawrence Martyr Church. The exhibit will be held Sunday, Nov. 19, at 2 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Children and students have been asked not to attend.

This event will give parents and members of the parish an opportunity to express their personal appreciation to the women whose dedicated work holds so important a place in the lives of their children. The proceeds will be used to refurbish the parish convent.

Mrs. William P. Croak, president, has announced that Mrs. Donald D. Shattuck will be in charge of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Frederick J. Brierley, co-chairman. Mrs. Robert Lauterjung, assisted by Mmes. Richard Rossberg, Richard Jones and Jack McComas, will be in charge of refreshments.

Decorations chairman Mrs. Vincent Metzger will be assisted by Mrs. Frank Mullin and Mrs. James Barrett. Hostesses will be Mmes. Richard Dinen, Herbert Babin and James Guillet Jr.

Mrs. M. B. Mirassou and members of the Senior Guild will pour.

Mrs. Richard Rossberg and Mrs. David Leach have arranged for a short musical interval by the St. Lawrence Martyr Children's Band under the direction of Keith Williams.

Following the tea at 4:30 p.m., St. Lawrence Martyr Church Choir will give a concert in the church. The 45-voice chorus under the direction of Terry McLaughlin will offer a selection of classical sacred music.
